CAP. XVIII.

An Act for the better Preſervation and Improvement of the River Wear, and Port and Haven of Sunderland, in the County of Durham. P R.

3 Geo. 1. private.

'WHEREAS the Town of Sunderland near the Sea, ſituate on the River Wear, in the County of Durham, is well inhabited by rich and able Merchants and Tradeſmen, and may be of great Importance, as well for his Majeſty's Service and Revenue, as for the publick Benefit of the Kingdom, having a Port or Haven capable of containing many hundred Sail of Ships at one Time, and from whence may be loaded and ſent great Numbers of Ships with Coals, Salt, Glaſs, and other Merchandizes to di-

'vers Places within this Realm, and also to foreign Parts; and divers Kinds and Sorts of Merchandizes may 'be imported in the said Port or Haven, whereby not only a great Revenue will yearly arise to his Majesty, 'but there will be also a constant Nursery and Supply of able Seamen to serve on board the Royal Navy, 'and great Numbers of poor People may be constantly employed in and about the Work and Trade of the 'said River and Port: And whereas by an Act passed in the third Year of the Reign of his late Ma-'jesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the Preservation and Improvement of the River Wear, 'and Port and Haven of Sunderland, in the County of Durham, certain Persons in the said Act named, were 'named, constituted and appointed Commissioners of the said River, Port and Haven, within the Limits, 'with the Powers, and for the Purposes therein mentioned, for and during the Term of twenty-one Years; 'and for the effectual cleansing and preserving the said River, Port and Haven, certain Duties were by the 'said Act granted and made payable from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June, which was in the 'Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventeen, and to have Continuance for the Space of 'twenty-one Years then next following: And whereas another Act passed in the thirteenth Year of the 'Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, For the more effectual Preservation and Improvement of 13 Geo. 1. pri-vate. 'the River Wear, and Port and Haven of Sunderland, in the County of Durham, whereby divers additional 'Powers were granted to the said Commissioners: And whereas the said Commissioners, in pursuance and 'in Execution of the Powers by the said Acts given to them, did, before the Expiration of the said Term 'thereby limited (which was on the twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand 'seven hundred and thirty-eight) at a very great Charge, erect a Pier and a Key at or near the Mouth of 'the said River, on the South-side thereof, and did divers other Acts, for the opening, cleansing, scouring, 'and improving of the said River, Port and Haven, from whence some Benefits and Advantages have arose; 'and in order to have more effectually cleansed, scoured and preserved the same, the said Commissioners 'proposed and intended to have lengthened the said Pier, and also to have built a Pier or Piers, Key or 'Keys, Wall or Walls, Jettee or Jettees, on the North-side of, and to have made and done other Works 'near the Mouth of the said River, Port or Haven; but the Money arising from the Duties laid and made 'payable by the said first mentioned Act, not being sufficient to make and perform such additional Works 'within the Term by the said former Acts limited, the Mouth of the said River, Port or Harbour, for 'want thereof, is still very much choaked by Sand thrown up, and brought into, and lodged in the said 'Harbour by the Sea; and also by means of great Banks of Sand, Gravel, Rubbish, and other gross Matter 'washed and brought down to, and lodged in the same, by Land Floods, and other Accidents; and also by 'throwing Ballast, Coal Ashes, Rubbish, and other gross Matter within the said River, Port or Harbour; 'and by the irregular and low Building, and want of repairing of Wharfs, Staiths and Keys, on or near 'the said River; but more especially for want of such Pier or Piers, Key or Keys, Wall or Walls, Jettee or 'Jettees, at or near the Mouth of the said River, Port or Haven to scour and cleanse the same, so that 'the Depth of Water at the Mouth of the said River is not yet sufficient for loaden Ships and Vessels to 'come into, or go out of the same, whereby the Navigation and Trade of and in the said River, Port or 'Haven, is very much prejudiced, hindered and obstructed: And whereas the lengthening the present 'Pier, and erecting and building a Pier or Piers, Key or Keys, Jettee or Jettees, and making and perform-'ing other Works at or near the Mouth of, and on other convenient Parts of the said River, will be a 'Means of deepening, cleansing, and rendering the same more navigable; and the preventing Ballast, Coal 'Ashes, Stone, Sand, Rubbish, and other gross Matter, being washed into the said River, Port or Haven, 'and the removing and preventing other the Abuses and Inconveniencies aforesaid, will be a Means of pre-'serving the said River, Port or Haven, so that, at all Times thereafter, loaden Ships or Vessels of a con-'siderable Burden may ride in, and sail into, and out of, the same, at all Tides; which will be a Means of 'reducing and keeping low the Prices of Coals at London, and other the Delivering-ports within this King-'dom, and will very much tend to the Encouragement and Increase of Navigation and Trade; which said 'Undertaking and Works, to finish and complete the same, will cost a very considerable Sum of Money: To the end therefore that the said River, Port and Haven of Sunderland aforesaid may be further improved, and the said Pier already built, lengthened, and such other Pier or Piers, Key or Keys, Jettee or Jettees, and other Works may be erected, built, made and performed, as at any Time hereafter shall, by the Commissioners hereby or hereafter to be appointed, be adjudged for the Advantage or Improvement of the said River, Port or Haven; and that the same may be preserved and kept in Repair; may it please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c.

XIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Register or Registers of all and every the Court and Courts of Admiralty in any of his Majesty's Plantations in America, or elsewhere, in any other of his Majesty's Dominions, shall, yearly and every Year upon the twenty third Day of October, or within three Calendar Months next after the same, make out and transcribe true Copies of all and every such Letter and Letters of Attorney as shall be so registered in the said Court or Courts, to which the Judge and Judges of the said Court and Courts shall affix his and their Seal of Office; and then the said Register and Registers shall transmit the same to the Treasurer of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich, to be there registered, and to be inspected by any Person gratis, the Charges of which Copies, and affixing the Seal or Seals thereto, and transmitting the same to the Treasurer of the said Hospital, shall be paid by the said Agent or Agents at the Time of making such Registry as aforesaid; and in case such Register or Registers shall neglect or refuse to transcribe and transmit such Copy and Copies of the said Letter and Letters of Attorney in Manner aforesaid (any Ship or Ships in that Time sailing from such Port or Place to any Port or

CAP. XXXII.

An Act for uniting the two Colleges of Saint Salvator and Saint Leonard, in the University of Saint Andrews, pursuant to an Agreement for that Purpose. P R.

'WHEREAS the College of Saint Salvator, in the Universty of Saint Adrews, consists of a Provost or Principal Master, three Professors of Philosophy, a Professor of Greek, and a Professor of Humanity, with small Salaries annexed to each Professorship; and Saint Leonard's College in the same Universty is likewise composed of a Principal Master, three Professors of Philosophy, a Professor of Greek, and a Professor of Humanity, who teach the same Arts and Sciences, and the said Colleges have different large Fabricks and Rents and Emoluments under separate Managements: And whereas the Parliament of Scotland, in Consideration of the low Condition of the Revenues of this and the other Universities, and of the mean and incompetent Provisions of the Masters and Professors thereof, and from a Desire of giving all due Encouragement to these Seminaries, did, by an Act of Parliament dated the tenth Day of September one thousand six hundred and seventy-two, grant the Stipends and Benefices of Churches that should happen to be vacant for seven Years next ensuing the Date of the said Act, to be employed for the Use of the said Universities and Colleges, the Proportion whereof allocated to the said two Colleges, being no more than fourteen Pounds thirteen Shillings and four Pence yearly; and the said Parliament of Scotland, considering the small and incompetent Provisions and Salaries then possessed by the Masters and Professors of his Majesty's famous and ancient Universty of Saint Andrews, did, for Encouragement and Advancement of Learning, by another Act of the seventeenth of September one thousand six hundred and eighty-one, enact and ordain, that Half a Month's Cess should be imposed upon the Land Rent in Scotland, to be paid in and stocked for the Use of the said Universty of Saint Andrews, and divided in its just Proportions to the several Masters and Professors in the several Colleges therein, by the Advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, from which the Sum of one hundred and seventeen Pounds fourteen Shillings and four Pence yearly, arises to the said two Colleges: And whereas his late Majesty King WILLIAM was graciously pleased, by a Grant bearing Date the twenty-ninth Day of April one thousand six hundred and ninety-five, to grant to the said Principals, Professors and Masters in the said Universty of Andrews, and to their Successors in Office, the yearly Sum of three hundred Pounds, out of the Rents and Revenues of the Bishopricks in Scotland, and to be applied and distributed among them in Manner therein mentioned, to commence from Whitsunday one thousand six hundred and ninety-four, and to continue in time coming, and to be paid yearly to the Factors of the several Colleges of the said Universty for the time being, for the Use and Behoof of the said Principals, Professors and others in Manner therein appointed, of which the Sum of one hundred and forty Pounds was the Share allocated to the Principals and Professors of the said two Colleges of Saint Salvator and Saint Leonard: And whereas his present Majesty was graciously pleased, from his pious and princely Zeal for the good and flourishing State of the said Universty of Saint Andrews, by his Royal Grant bearing Date the ninth Day of April one thousand seven hundred and twenty-nine, to grant to the several Principals and Professors in the said Universty, and to their Successors in Office, the yearly Sum of two hundred and ten Pounds, to be distributed in Manner therein set forth, to be placed on the Establishment for Civil Affairs, in that Part of the United Kingdom, to commence from Christmas one thousand seven hundred and twenty-seven, and from thence forth to be paid and accounted for to the said several Principals and Professors, and their Successors in Office, during his Majesty's Pleasure; of which the Sum of one hundred and fifty-seven Pounds, sixteen Shillings and eleven Pence and one third of a penny, was the Share allocated to the Principals and Professors of the said two Colleges last mentioned: And whereas the present Salaries payable to the Masters and Professors of the said two Colleges are as follows, viz. to the Provost or Principal of Saint Salvator's College, the yearly Sum of eighty-three Pounds, six Shillings and eight Pence, including the Sum of eighteen Pounds, as his Share of his present Majesty's said Bounty; to the three Professors of Philosophy and Professor of Greek, the yearly Sum of forty-six Pounds each, including the Sum of eleven Pounds one Shilling and six Pence Half-penny, as the Share for each of his Majesty's said Bounty; to the Professor of Humanity, the yearly Sum of thirty-nine Pounds fourteen Shillings and six Pence and one third of a Penny, including the Sum of eleven Pounds one Shilling and six Pence Half-penny, as his

'Share of the ſaid Bounty; to the Principal of Saint Leonard's College, the yearly Sum of one hundred 'and thirty Pounds two Shillings and five Pence and one ſixth of a Penny, including the Sum of eighteen 'Pounds, as his Share of the ſaid Bounty; to the ſeveral Profeſſors in the ſame College, the ſame Salaries 'reſpectively, with the Correſpondent Profeſſors in the ſaid College of Saint Salvator, and including the 'like Sums, as their ſeveral Shares of the ſaid Bounty; to the Profeſſor of Mathematicks, the yearly Sum 'of ſixty-one Pounds, including the Sum of eleven Pounds one Shilling and ſix Pence Half-penny, as his 'Share of the ſaid Bounty; and to the Profeſſor of Medicine, the yearly Sum of fifty Pounds: And whereas 'the Revenues of the ſaid two Colleges have, from time to time, been diminiſhed by various Accidents, 'and particularly by Augmentations of Stipends, out of the Tithes of certain Pariſhes which were anci- 'ently appropriated to the ſaid two Colleges, whereby, and by Means whereof, the Monies ariſing from the 'ancient and late Grants made to the ſaid Univerſity, is not more than ſufficient to ſatisfy and diſcharge the 'ſaid ſmall Salaries, and other incident Expences, and there is no Fund ſufficient to maintain or ſupport the 'Fabricks of the ſaid Colleges: And whereas the preſent Maſters and Profeſſors in both the ſaid Colleges, 'taking into their Conſideration, that the Meanneſs of the preſent Salaries will diſcourage Men of Learn- 'ing and Abilities from accepting of vacant Profeſſorſhips, and that in the preſent ruinous State and Con- 'dition of one of the Fabricks, the ſame cannot be repaired or ſupported without an Expence far exceeding 'what the publick Funds of the ſaid College can afford; and conceiving it to be proper, when they cannot 'immediately apply a full Remedy to this growing Evil, at leaſt to attempt laying a Foundation which 'hereafter may ſupport this ſinking, though once flouriſhing Univerſity, and give Hopes of reſtoring it again 'to its former Luſtre; and after mature Deliberation, finding no Expedient more probable than the uniting 'of the ſaid two Colleges, and their Rents and Revenues under one common Management, and uniting 'alſo the Correſpondent Profeſſorſhips in the ſaid two Colleges, as the ſame ſhall become vacant by Death 'or Reſignation; the ſaid preſent Maſters and Profeſſors in both the ſaid Colleges, have therefore come to 'an Agreement to unite and incorporate the ſaid two Colleges, upon ſuch Terms as they conceive may be 'of general publick Benefit, and tend to promote the Advancement of Learning and better Education of 'Youth in the ſaid ancient Univerſity: But as ſuch Union cannot be effected without the Aid and Autho- 'rity of an Act of Parliament;' May it therefore pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, upon the humble Petition of David Young, Profeſſor of Philoſophy, in Behalf of himſelf, and of the Provoſt and Principal Maſters and Profeſſors in the ſaid Colleges of Saint Salvator and Saint Leonard, in the ſaid Univerſity of Saint Andrew's, That it may be enacted, &c.

"The two Colleges of St. Salvator and St. Leonard united. The Lands, &c. belonging thereto, put under "the Management of a Principal and Maſters. 'WHEREAS by an Act made in the twelfth Year of the Reign of King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act impowering the Maſter of the Rolls for the time being to make Leaſes for Years, in order to new build the old Houſes belonging to the Rolls, reciting, That the Manſion-houſe, Ground and Tenements, with the Appurtenances, belonging to the Maſter of the Rolls, as Maſter of the Rolls, were much out of Repair, and not capable of Improvement, in regard the former Maſters of the Rolls were not enabled to grant ſuch Leaſes, and for ſuch Terms, as might encourage Tenants to build and to repair, it was enacted, That the Maſter of the Rolls for the time being, and his Succeſſors, Maſters of the Rolls, ſhould have good Right, full Power, and lawful Authority, during the Time he or they ſhould continue Maſters of the Rolls, by Writing indented, under Hand and Seal, to grant and make Leaſes for one and forty Years, or for any leſſer Term, to commence from the making of any ſuch Leaſes, of all and ſingular the Premiſſes, or any Part thereof (the Chapel of the Rolls, with a convenient Manſion-houſe, Court-yard, Garden, Stable, Coach-houſe, and other Out-houſes and Buildings, fit for the Uſe and Habitation of the Maſter of the Rolls only excepted) and that ſuch Leaſe and Leaſes ſo to be made, ſhould be good and effectual in Law, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if ſuch Maſter of the Rolls for the time being, as ſhould ſo make the ſame, had been ſeiſed of the Premiſſes of a good Eſtate in Fee-ſimple, in which Act there is a Proviſo, That the Maſter of the Rolls for the time being, or any ſucceeding Maſter of the Rolls, after the Premiſſes had been once letten, according to the Power given as aforeſaid, ſhould not make or grant any new or concurrent Leaſe, until within ſeven Years of the Expiration of the Leaſe then in being, nor for any leſſer Rent than was reſerved upon the former Leaſe, nor for any longer Term, than for the Term of twenty-one Years from the making ſuch new Leaſe: And whereas Sir Harbottle Grimſton, Baronet, Maſter of the Rolls, did, by virtue of the Powers given to him by the ſaid Act as Maſter of the Rolls, grant Building Leaſes of Part of the ſaid Ground belonging to the Rolls, for the 'Term of forty-one Years, and other Leaſes of other Parts thereof, for the Term of twenty-one Years: 'And whereas Sir Joſeph Jekyll, Knight, deceaſed, was by Letters Patent, under the Great Seal of Great 'Britain, bearing Date the thirteenth Day of July in the third Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty 'King GEORGE the Firſt, appointed Maſter of the Rolls, and ſoon after ſuch his Appointment, finding 'the Houſes built on the Ground belonging to the Rolls, in a ruinous Condition, did, from time to time, 'rebuild ſeveral of the ſaid Houſes in a ſubſtantial Manner, and at a very great Expence, and afterwards 'granted Leaſes of the ſaid Ground and Houſes, for the Term of forty-one Years, in Truſt for himſelf, 'conceiving that he was impowered by the ſaid Act to grant ſuch Leaſes: And whereas the ſaid Sir Joſeph 'Jekyll died on or about the nineteenth Day of Auguſt in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred 'and thirty-eight, and by his laſt Will and Teſtament, in Writing, bearing Date the fourth Day of May 'in the ſaid Year, bequeathed ſeveral pecuniary Legacies and Annuities for Life, to ſeveral of his Relations, 'and directed that the Eaſt India and South Sea Stock, which he ſhould be poſſeſſed of at the Time of his 'Death, ſhould not be transferred, or altered by his Executor, during the Life of Dame Elizabeth his Wife '(who is ſince alſo deceaſed) but after her Death, he gave his ſaid Eaſt India and South Sea Stock to his 'Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, Kings or Queens of England, to be applied to the Uſe of the Sinking 'Fund, in ſuch manner, as ſhould be directed by Act of Parliament; and all the reſt and Reſidue of his Eſtate 'both Real and Perſonal, he gave and deviſed unto Thomas Jekyll, John Jekyll, Joſeph Jekyll, Edward Jekyll, 'Richard Blackett Jekyll, Mary Jekyll and Hannah Jekyll, Children of John Jekyll, late of New England de-'ceaſed, and to Joſeph Jekyll Grocer, the Son of Thomas Jekyll, and to Nicholas Roberts, Thomas Heſter, 'Tryphena Baldwin and Tryphoſa Sanders, and to their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, as Tenants in 'Common; and he appointed the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll Executor of his Will; and he alſo gave his ſaid Execu-'tor Power to renew Leaſes, from time to time, of the Houſes held of the Maſter of the Rolls, with his 'Succeſſor or Succeſſors, Maſters of the Rolls for the Time being: And whereas the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll 'did before, and till the Time of his Death, ſhew great Affection and Regard for ſeveral of his Relations, 'whom he ſo made Reſiduary Legatees by his ſaid Will, and ſeveral Times expreſſed his Intention to make 'a competent Proviſion for their Support, and for that End and Purpoſe deviſed to them all the Reſidue of 'his Real and Perſonal Eſtate, in manner as before-mentioned: And whereas it having appeared ſince the 'Death of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll, that the Ground belonging to the Rolls which he demiſed together 'with the Meſſuages built thereon for the Term of forty-one Years, were demiſeable for the Term of 'twenty-one Years only, the ſaid Reſiduary Legatees were neceſſitated to enter into an Agreement with 'John Verney Eſquire, deceaſed, late Maſter of the Rolls, by which Agreement all the ſaid Leaſes granted 'as aforeſaid, for the Term of forty-one Years, were to be cancelled, and the ſaid John Verney was to ex-'ecute, for the Benefit of the ſaid Reſiduary Legatees, other Leaſes of the ſaid Meſſuages, for the Term of 'twenty-one Years, and by Reaſon of ſuch Agreement the Value of the Eſtate bequeathed to the ſaid Le-'gatees, is ſo reduced, that ſeveral of them will be expoſed to Indigence and Diſtreſs, unleſs ſome Relief 'be granted to them by Parliament;' Therefore we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons, of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, having taken the Premiſſes into Conſideration, do moſt humbly beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by Warrant or Order under his or their Sign Manual, to permit the ſaid Joſeph Jekyll, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, to ſell ſo much of the Eaſt India and South Sea Stock, deviſed as aforeſaid, as will enable him or them to raiſe for the Benefit of the ſaid Reſiduary Legatees, the Sum of thirteen thouſand five hundred and eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and two Pence; which ſaid Sum of thirteen thouſand five hundred eighty-two Pounds nine Shillings and two Pence ſhall be applied by him or them in the ſame Manner, as the Real and Perſonal Eſtate of the ſaid Sir Joſeph Jekyll is, by his ſaid Will, directed to be applied.

CAP. XL.

An Act to revive, continue and amend an Act made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for clearing, depthening, repairing, extending, maintaining and improving the Haven and Piers of Great Yarmouth; and for depthening and making more navigable the several Rivers emptying themselves at the said Town; and also for preserving Ships, wintering in the said Haven, from Accidents by Fire. P R.

'WHEREAS the ancient Borough of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, hath, by long Experience, been found to be of great Importance, for advancing his Majesty's Service and Revenue, and Trade in general, and more especially the Fishery, and for educating and employing many thousands of skilful Mariners and Seamen: And whereas the Inhabitants of the said Borough, being unable to support the great and unavoidable Charge of clearing, repairing and maintaining the Haven and Piers belonging to the said Borough, have, from time to time, been aided and relieved by several successive Acts of Parliament: And whereas an Act was made in the ninth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First (of glorious Memory) whereby several Duties were granted for clearing, depthening, repairing, extending, maintaining and improving the said Haven and Piers; and for depthening the Channel of that Part of the River Yare called Braydon; and for making more navigable the said River Yare, and the Rivers Waveney and Bure, which empty themselves into the Haven of the said Town of Yarmouth; and for repairing the Bridge and publick Keys belonging to the said Town; and also for preserving Ships wintering in the said Haven; which Act being expired, the said Haven and Piers have of late been, and still continue to be in so bad a Condition, that the great Sums of Money already expended in and about the same, will prove useless, and the said Haven and Piers inevitably fall soon into irreparable Decay, unless timely and effectual Provision be made by Parliament to prevent the Destruction thereof: To the end therefore that the said Haven and Piers may be preserved and kept in Repair; and that the Channel of that Part of the River Yare called Braydon, leading from Great Yarmouth, to the City of Norwich; and so much of the said River Yare, as lies between the new Mills in Norwich and Hardly Cross in Hardly, in the County of Norfolk; and also the Rivers Waveney and Bure, commonly called the North River, may be depthened and made more navigable for Boats and Keels usually passing upon the same; Be it enacted, &c.

'XXXIX. And whereas it will be for the evident Utility of the Subjects within Scotland, and for the 'more effectual Administration of Justice there, that the Circuit Courts should be held in some Parts and 'Places in Scotland, to which the Judges have not hitherto used to go;' Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, by an Order to be made in his or their Privy Council, to make a new Division and Distribution of the Circuits in Scotland, or any of them, and to appoint and allot what Counties, Shires, Stewartries, Places, Districts and Bounds, shall be comprehended within any such Circuit, and at what Times and Places the Circuit Courts shall be held respectively for ever after; and such Order so to be made as aforesaid, shall be duly performed, observed and obeyed; and the Judges, in such new Circuits so to be appointed, shall have, exercise and enjoy the same Jurisdiction, Powers, Authorities and Privileges, as by virtue of any Law now in Force, or by this Act, are or would be competent to the Judges in the Circuits already established in Scotland, or any of them. Sheriff's Fines abolished. Judges Fines to be paid into the Exchequer. Rules to be observed in levying, &c. Sentence-money abolished.

Prize Ships to be deemed as Britiſh built.

'IX. And whereas it is reaſonable and fit that Prize Ships or Veſſels, lawfully condemned, ſhould be 'deemed as Britiſh built Ships or Veſſels to all Intents and Purpoſes,' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Prize Ships or Veſſels which have been at any Time, or ſhall be legally condemned, ſhall, to all Intents and Purpoſes whatſoever, be conſidered as Britiſh built Ships or Veſſels, and be deemed and taken as ſuch, and ſhall be intitled to have and enjoy all and every the ſame Rights, Liberties, Privileges and Advantages in all Reſpects whatſoever, with Britiſh built Ships or Veſſels, and ſhall be ſubject and liable to all and every the Rules and Regulations that Britiſh built Ships or Veſſels are ſubject and liable to; any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

'WHEREAS it hath been found by Experience, that the Tenure of Lands in that Part of Great 'Britain called Scotland, by Ward Holding, and the Consequences of the same, being the Casualties 'of Ward Marriage and Recognition, have been much more burthensome, grievous and prejudicial to the 'Vassals Proprietors of the Lands held by that Tenure, than they have been beneficial to the Superiors;' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Tenure of Lands or Heretages in Scotland by Ward Holding, whether simple or taxed Ward, and the Casualties consequent upon the same by Ward Marriage and Recognition, be taken away and discharged, and they are hereby taken away and discharged, from and after the twenty-fifth Day of March in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight; any Law, Statute, Custom or Usage to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

III. And in order to ascertain the Quantum of such Non-entry Duty, it is hereby enacted, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, in all Services upon the Brief of Mortancestry of any Heir or or Heirs in such Lands or Heretages as aforesaid, the Retour, over and above the setting forth the old and new Extent of the Lands, in such Manner as hath been heretofore practised, shall further set forth and express the Valuation of such Lands and Heretages as aforesaid, and the Proportion above mentioned of such Valuation, and no more shall be the Non-entry Duty of such Lands or Heretages, preceding the Citation in the general Declarator of Non-entry.

Tenure of Ward Holding held of Superiors converted into Feu Holding.

IV. And be it further enacted, That all Tenures of any Lands or Heretages in Scotland, that are now held or liable to be held Ward of any Subject Superior, whether simple or taxed Ward, are hereby enacted to be turned into Feu Holding, for Payment of a certain Rent or Feu Duty in Money, Victual, Cattle or otherwise, yearly, in Place of the said Casualties of Ward Holding hereby discharged, and of all Services, and shall be so construed, adjudged and deemed to be from the said twenty-fifth Day of March and for ever thereafter.

Court of Session to settle the Recompense,

V. And in order to ascertain the Quantum of the Feu Duty to be paid yearly, after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, by the Tenants or Vassals of the said Lands and Heretages heretofore held Ward to the Superiors thereof, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Court of Session in Scotland, and they are hereby impowered and required to take into their Consideration, the Difference in Value to the Vassals of the Change of their Holdings or Tenures from Ward to Feu hereby enacted, and what constant annual Rent or Feu Duty, payable to the Superior, will be a reasonable Satisfaction or Recompence for that Value or Difference, and thereupon to make and publish an Act of Sederunt, which shall be in Force, and observed by all the Subjects in that Part of the Kingdom, unless or until the same shall be altered by a future Act of Parliament; and according to the Rules prescribed in such Act of Sederunt, it shall and may be lawful for all and every the Superiors and Vassals, or Parties interested, to settle and adjust betwixt themselves the Feu Duties to be hereafter payable in Place of the Tenures hereby abolished or altered; and in case of Difference arising, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court of Session, upon Application made to them, by Bill or Petition, on Behalf of or by any Subject Superior of such Lands or Heretages, or by the Vassals or Proprietors thereof, summarily to determine the Quantum of the said annual Feu Duty, such as the Court shall judge to be a reasonable and equitable Recompence to the Superior, for the Change of the Holding hereby enacted, after having heard both Parties, or summoned the Party called as Defender, upon twenty-one Days Notice; and whatever annual Payment the said Court of Session shall so modify, shall be the Feu Duty payable for such Lands and Heretages as aforesaid, to the respective Superiors thereof, and all and singular their Heirs and Successors, and that yearly at Whitsuntide, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, when the Change of Holding is hereby enacted to take Place, in the same Manner as if Feu Charters had been granted of that Date to the respective Vassals upon their Resignation, containing such Change of Holding, for Payment of the annual Feu Duties so to be modified.

and publish an Act of Sederunt, and determine Differences in a summary Way.

Vassals not to forfeit for Feu Duties till Modification made.

VI. Provided always, That until such Modification shall be made by the Court of Session, the Vassal shall not be liable to incur any Forfeiture or Irritancy for Non-payment of the Feu Duties; and such Modification being made, shall be inserted as the Feu Duty payable for such Lands or Heretages in the future Renovations of the Infeftments thereof, by the present Vassals, their Heirs or Successors.

Life-rented Estates exonerated.

VIII. Provided also, That in every Case where the whole Lands or Estate so held Ward, on the said twenty-fifth Day of March, shall then stand provided in Life-rent to any Person or Persons, in such Manner as by the Laws of Scotland now in being, would be exclusive of the Casualty of Ward, such Life-renter or Life-renters during the Continuance of his, her or their Rights respectively, shall not be subject to pay the annual Feu Duties to be modified as aforesaid; and the same during the Subsistence of such Life-rent Rights, shall be suspended, and shall commence and become payable to the Superior at the first Term of Whitsunday after the Determination of such Life-rent Right; and in every Case where such Life-rent Right is not total of the whole Estate, the entire Feu Duty so to be modified, shall, during the Subsistence of such Life-rent Right, be payable to the Superior by the Fiar or Proprietor, out of such Parts of the Lands or Estate as shall not be Life-rented.

Infeftments of Vassals holding Lands in Ward confirmed.

VIII. Provided also, That the Infeftments now standing in the Persons of any Vassal in Scotland, holding their Lands or other Heretages Ward, shall remain good and valid, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, so long as the Persons now infeft shall retain the same, or not be denuded thereof; and they shall notwithstanding, by virtue of this present Act, be no longer subjected to the Casualties hereby discharged, but shall be subject to pay the annual Blanch or Feu Duties respectively, hereby provided to be payable in place of those Casualties.

No Tenure of Ward Holding to be granted.

IX. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no Tenure of any Lands or Heretages by Ward Holding, shall hereafter be created by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, or by any other Superior or Proprietor of Lands, or other Heretages in Scotland.

Tenure of Feu cum Maritagio, &c. taken away.

'X. And whereas there are certain Lands in Scotland held by the Tenure of Feu cum Maritagio, or 'with Clauses de non alienando sine consensu Superiorum;' It is also hereby enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Time coming, from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, the Casualty of Marriage consequent upon such Holding, and all such prohibitory Clauses restraining the Power of Alienation, be taken away and discharged; and it shall and may be lawful in like Manner as is herein before directed in the Case of Ward Holding, for the respective Subject Superiors, or Vassals in Lands or Heretages that are held Feu cum Maritagio, or with such prohibitory Clauses as aforesaid, to apply to the Court of Session to modify such additional Feu Duty by the Vassal, as they shall judge a reasonable Recompence to the Superior for such Casualty of Marriage or prohibitory Clauses as aforesaid, hereby taken away and discharged.

Court of Session to modify the Recompence.

Casualties of Single and Life-rent Escheats in-

'XI. And whereas the Casualties of Single and Life-rent Escheat, consequent upon the Process compe-
'tent by the Law of Scotland, for recovering Payment of Civil Debts, or Performance of Obligations,
'have by Experience, been found highly rigorous, and liable to be abused;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, the Casualties of Single Escheat, cheat, heretofore incurred by Horning and Denunciation of the Debtor in any Civil Debt or Obligation, and of Life-rent Escheat, heretofore incurred by such Debtor so denounced, continuing for a Year and Day unrestored or unrelaxed, be, and the same are hereby taken away and discharged for ever; and that from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, no Single Escheat or Life-rent Escheat shall become forfeited, or be consequent upon any such Process as is before mentioned; any Law, Custom or Usage to the contrary hereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Incurred by Horning and Denunciation for Civil Causes taken away.

'XII. And whereas the Methods of procuring Entry by Heirs, or singular Successors or Purchasers of 'Lands in Scotland, that are held of Subject Superiors, heretofore practised, are tedious and expensive;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fifth Day of March, it shall and may be lawful and competent for any Person, who shall be duly served and retoured Heir to any of his Predecessors in any Lands or Heretages in Scotland, and to any Person who shall purchase or acquire such Lands or Heretages from the former Proprietor or Vassal, who was duly vested and seized therein, and who shall obtain from such Vendor or former Proprietor, a Disposition or Conveyance, containing a Procuratory of Resignation in Favour of such Purchaser or Disponee, to apply to the Ordinary on the Bills in the Court of Session for the time being, praying a Warrand for Letters of Horning, to charge the Superior, of whom such Lands or Heretages were respectively held, to receive or grant new Infeftment to such Heir or Purchaser respectively; and upon Production to the Lords of Session of a Special Retour of the Petitioner or Party so applying in any such Lands or Heretages, or upon Production of a Disposition or Conveyance, bearing a Procuratory of Resignation in Favour of such Petitioner, it shall and may be lawful for the said Lords of Session, and they are hereby authorized and required to grant Warrand for Letters of Horning, upon fifteen Days, to charge the Superior or Superiors in the Lands contained in such Special Retour or Procuratory of Resignation, to receive or grant new Infeftment to such Heir, Purchaser or Disponee respectively.

Heirs to, or Purchasers of, Lands, to apply for Letters of Horning to charge the Superior to grant new Infeftment.

XIII. Provided always, That no Superior shall be obliged to give Obedience to such Charge, unless the Charger at the same Time shall pay or tender to him such Fees or Casualties as he is by Law intitled to receive, upon the Entry of such Heir or Purchaser; and that it shall and may be lawful for every such Superior to shew cause why he ought not to be compelled to give Obedience to such Charge, by offering a Bill of Suspension in the usual Manner to the Court of Session.

Fees to be paid to the Superiors upon Entry of Heirs, &c.

'XIV. And whereas it hath been and may be found necessary for the publick Service, to erect Buildings and make Settlements in certain Places in the Highlands of Scotland, and in purchasing the Land upon which such Buildings are or may be erected, and Settlements made, a Difficulty may arise by reason of the same being Part of a Talzied Estate;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person who is seized in, or possessed of, a Talzied Estate in Scotland, to sell, dispone or resign ad perpetuam remanentiam, any Part thereof, which his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors shall think fit to purchase, for erecting of Buildings, or making Settlements within the same; any Law, Charter, Tailzie or other Act or Deed to the contrary notwithstanding.

Heirs of Tailzie allowed to sell Lands to the Crown.

XV. Provided always, That the Monies paid as the Price of such Land, being Part of a Tailzied Estate, shall be laid out, and settled to the same Uses, and with the same Limitations and Restrictions, as such Land was settled before such Sale thereof as aforesaid, or applied for Payment of the Debts, if any such there be, of the Maker of the Intail, or other Debts that are effectual Burdens on the Talzied Estate, not being contracted by such Vendor himself; and for that Purpose, the said Money shall be paid into the Hand of such Trustees, who shall for that Purpose be appointed by his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, by Sign Manual, and the Vendors; which Payments shall be good Discharges to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, of and from such Purchase-money; and such Trustees, and the Survivor and Survivors of them, and the Executors and Administrators of such Survivor, shall lay out the same in the Purchase of other Lands, and settle, and procure to be settled the same, or applied for Payment of Debts on the same Estate, in the Manner herein before directed.

Purchase-money how to be applied.

'XVI. And whereas the infranchising of Vassals of Subject Superiors, by causing them to become im-'mediate Vassals of the Crown, is a Matter of public Benefit which ought to be encouraged;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any Person seized in, or possessed of a Tailzied Estate, in Scotland, comprehending Lands or Superiorities of Vassals, under or holding of him, to sell to such Vassals, or any of them, the Superiorities over their respective Lands, at such Prices as the Parties shall agree for, and thereupon to resign such Lands for new Infeftment, to be granted to such Buyer of his own Superiority, which shall be good and valid; any Law, Charter, Tailzie or other Act or Deed to the contrary notwithstanding.

Possessors of Tailzied Estates impowered to sell the Superiorities.

XVII. CAP. XXI.

An Act for explaining and amending an Act passed in the seventeenth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for raising and establishing a Fund for a Provision for the Widows and Children of the Ministers of the Church of Scotland, and of the Heads, Principals, and Masters of the Universities of Saint Andrews, Glasgow, and Edinburgh.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the seventeenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for raising and establishing a Fund for a Provision for the Widows and Children of the Ministers of the Church of Scotland, and of the Heads, Principals, and Masters of the Universities of Saint Andrews, Glasgow, and Edinburgh; it was, among other Things, enacted, That every Minister who should be ordained and admitted to a Benefice in a Church of Scotland, and every Person who should be admitted as Head, Principal, or Master, in any of the three Universities of Saint Andrews, Glasgow, and Edinburgh, after the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and forty-four, should be subject to the annual Rate of two Pounds twelve Shillings and six Pence, or of three Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence, or of five Pounds five Shillings, or of six Pounds eleven Shillings and three Pence, of lawful Money of Great Britain, at his Option: and should, at the Term of Candlemas next after Admission to, or Enjoyment of his Benefice or Salary for one whole Year, make Payment of one Year's Rate; and in case he, at such Term of Candlemas had been admitted to, or enjoyed his said Benefice or Salary only for one Half Year, he should only be liable to the Payment of half of the said yearly Rate, and to the full Year's Rate at each Term of Candlemas next thereafter, during his Life; and every Minister, Head, Principal or Master as aforesaid, was required to make his Election of one of the said four yearly Rates, on or before the first Term of Candlemas after he should have a Right to one Half Year's Benefice or Salary, or before the Term of Candlemas next after having had Right for one Year and Half to any Benefice situate in 17 Geo. 2. c. 15.

‘ the Weſtern or Northern Iſles of Scotland; and in Default thereof he was to be ſubject to the annual Rate
‘ of three Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence, during Life; and every Miniſter, Head, Principal or ‘ Maſter intitled to a Benefice or Office as aforeſaid, and every Miniſter in the Weſtern and Northern Iſles of ‘ Scotland, before the twenty-fifth of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four, was to give Notice
‘ within ſix Months, or eighteen Months reſpectively, that he would not be ſubject to any of the yearly ‘ Rates before mentioned, or would ſubject himſelf to one or other of them, declaring which of them he ‘ choſe to be ſubject to, and in Default of giving ſuch Notice reſpectively, was to be liable to the annual ‘ Rate of three Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence: And the ſaid Act likewiſe aſcertained what Pro‘ portion of the ſaid Rates ſhould be paid reſpectively by Miniſters, Heads, Principals or Maſters, who at ‘ their Deaths, had only Right to one Half of the Benefice or Salary of that Year, and by their Heirs and ‘ Executors, and by thoſe who had a Right to the Ann; and what other Rates and Sums ſhould be paid by ‘ every Miniſter, Head, Principal or Maſter, for the firſt Year, and upon the Marriage of Miniſters, Heads, ‘ Principals or Maſters, ordained or admitted Aſſiſtants and Succeſſors to thoſe having Right to a Benefice or ‘ Salary; and upon the firſt and every ſucceeding Marriage of every Miniſter, Head, Principal or Maſter, ‘ admitted as well after as before the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-‘ four, to his Benefice or Office: And every Miniſter, Head, Principal or Maſter aforeſaid, neglecting to ‘ pay the annual or other Rates due at the Times appointed, was to be ſubject to lawful Intereſt from the ‘ reſpective Times of Payment: And every Benefice and every Office as aforeſaid, vacant before the twenty-‘ fifth Day of March one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four, was to be ſubject to the Sum of five ‘ Pounds; and vacant on or after the ſaid twenty-fifth Day of March, to two Pounds ten Shillings, for ‘ every Half Year the Vacancy ſhould continue: And it was further enacted, That out of the aforeſaid an‘ nual Rates and other Sums, there ſhould be paid, by Order and Direction of Truſtees therein after named,
‘ a Sum not exceeding two hundred and ten Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, yearly, for the Sa‘ laries of a General Collector or Receiver, and a Clerk; and that the Remainder of the ſaid ſeveral Sums ‘ ſhould be applied to the Payment of an Annuity of ten Pounds, or fifteen Pounds, or twenty Pounds, or ‘ twenty-five Pounds reſpectively, to the Widow of every Miniſter, Head, Principal or Maſter, who had ‘ been ſubject to the annual Rates of two Pounds twelve Shillings and ſix Pence, or three Pounds eighteen ‘ Shillings and nine Pence, or five Pounds five Shillings, or ſix Pounds eleven Shillings and three Pence re-
‘ ſpectively, to commence from the firſt Term of Whitſunday or Martinmas, which ſhould be one full Half ‘ Year after the Huſband's Death; and if no Widow was left, but one or more Children, ſuch Child or ‘ Children was to be intitled to a Sum equal to ten Years Annuity that would have been payable to their ‘ Father's Widow; and if the Widow died, or was married before the Lapſe of ten Years after the Com‘ mencement of her Annuity, and whoſe Huſband left a Child or Children, who, at her Death or Marriage, ‘ ſhould be under the Age of ſixteen Years, ſuch Child or Children was to be intitled to a Sum equal to ten ‘ Years of the ſaid Widow's Annuity, deducting ſo much thereof, as had been then received by the Widow:
‘ And it was further enacted, That the Surplus of the annual Rates and Sums after Payment of the annual ‘ Expence of Management, and of the ſaid Annuities and other Proviſions, ſhould at the Term of Whit-
‘ ſunday yearly, be lent out to Miniſters, Heads, Principals and Maſters, ſubject to annual Rates as afore-
‘ ſaid, to the amount of thirty Pounds to each (every of whom was thereby obliged to receive the ſame)
‘ which was to be repaid with Intereſt, at the Time that he ceaſed to have Right to his Benefice or Office:
‘ And it was thereby further enacted, That all future Surpluſſes, over and above the Sums ſo lent as afore-
‘ ſaid, ſhould, from time to time, be lent out at an Intereſt not under four Pounds per Centum per Annum,
‘ until a Capital was made of thirty-five thouſand Pounds; and the Surplus ariſing above the ſaid Capital,
‘ was to be divided proportionably amongſt the Children of Miniſters, Heads, Principals and Maſters, who,
‘ in reſpect of the Death of their Father, or the Death or Marriage of his Widow within that Year, ſhould
‘ be then intitled to receive their Proviſions: And divers Proviſions were enacted to prevent any Diminution
‘ of, or Incroachment upon, the ſaid Capital: And Truſtees were nominated for levying, receiving, and ‘ iſſuing the reſpective annual Sums payable by virtue of the ſaid Act for the Purpoſes therein expreſſed, and ‘ for lending out the Surplus in Manner therein directed, and for raiſing the aforeſaid Capital of thirty-five ‘ thouſand Pounds by Loans at Intereſt, and for uplifting the ſaid Capital in the Whole or in Part, and re-
‘ employing the ſame; and they were to meet in the Old Church Iſle at Edinburgh, and were to have four ‘ ſtated regular Meetings yearly; and a General Collector or Receiver of the aforeſaid annual or other Rates
‘ was to be appointed, who was to have full Power to carry on all Suits and Actions for Recovery thereof;
‘ and was impowered to uſe all Diligence for ſecuring all and every the aforeſaid Sums; the Expence whereof
‘ was to be recovered out of the reſpective Debtors Eſtates, without any Abatement or Mitigation; and in‘ cidental Expences of the ſaid Truſtees were not to exceed, in any one Year, the Sum of forty Pounds:
‘ And whereas Inconveniencies and Difficulties have ariſen in the Execution of the ſaid Act, by reaſon that
‘ the Miniſters, Heads, Principals and Maſters, ordained or admitted after the twenty-fifth Day of March
‘ one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four, are allowed to withhold their Declarations touching their ‘ Election of their annual Rates, ſo late in the Year as Candlemas; and the Collector General cannot ef‘ fectually levy and bring in the ſaid Rates, and other Sums, under his Management, between the Terms
‘ appointed for the Payment and Diſtribution thereof, by the Means of an ordinary Action againſt the De‘ ficients; and the Expence of ſuch Action becomes very heavy upon the deficient Miniſter, Head, Princi‘ pal or Maſter: And whereas the Number of Benefices and Offices in Scotland, ſubjected to the ſaid Rates,
‘ have been found to be conſiderably leſs, and the Number of Widows and Children to be provided for ‘ conſiderably greater than was ſuppoſed in the Computation, upon which the Proportion between the an‘ nual Rates and the Annuities and Proviſions mentioned in the ſaid recited Act was fixed; and the Annui‘ ties and Proviſions already become payable to the Widows and Children of Miniſters, Heads, Principals
‘ and Maſters deceaſed, and thoſe which may become due for ſeveral ſucceeding Years, will, in all Proba‘ bility, very much exceed what they were computed at; and the ſaid deceaſed Miniſters, Heads, Princi-

'pals and Masters, have contributed very little to the Fund established by the said Act; and there is great 'Reason to apprehend, that the annual Surplusses, in the early Years of Collection of the Rates and Sums 'aforesaid, will not raise the intended Capital, and that the said Fund, if raised, will not be sufficient for 'answering the Design of the said Act; by reason whereof, the Widows and Children of those Ministers, 'Heads, Principals and Masters, who shall have contributed most to the raising of the said Fund, will be 'deprived of a great Part of the Annuities and Provisions due to them, unless some Deduction shall be 'made from the Annuity granted to the Widow, or the Provision made for the Child or Children of each 'Minister, Head, Principal or Master, who shall not have contributed to the Fund a Sum equal to three 'Years Amount of the Annuity correspondent to his annual Rate, and unless a Sum be allowed annually 'for increasing the capital Fund to a greater Amount than is allowed by the said recited Act: And whereas 'also it is equitable and just, that the Widows, as well as Children of Contributors to the said capital 'Fund, should have a Share of any Benefit which may casually arise from the Surplusses thereof, after such 'Capital shall be made up:' Therefore, and for removing the Doubts and Difficulties aforesaid touching the Execution of the said recited Act, and for preserving a just and equal Proportion, as much as is possible, between the Contributions made to the said Fund by any Minister, Head, Principal or Master, and the Sums to be drawn out of the same by his Widow and Children, and between the Widows and Children of such Contributors; your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Trustees named and appointed in and by the said recited Act for putting the same in Execution, as specially warranted and authorized to that effect by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, holden in the Month of May last, do most humbly beseech your Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, every Minister who shall be ordained and admitted to a Benefice in the Church of Scotland, and every Person who shall be admitted as Head, Principal or Master, in any of the Universities of Saint Andrews, Glasgow and Edinburgh, shall make his Election to which of the four yearly Rates mentioned in the said recited Act he chooses to be subjected, during his Life, in Manner therein directed, within the Times respectively after-mentioned; that is to say, Every Minister having a Benefice in the Western or Northern Isles of Scotland, on or before the fifteenth Day of January, that shall first happen after such Minister shall have had Right to his Benefice for a Year and half; and every other Minister aforesaid, of the Church of Scotland, on or before the fifteenth Day of January, that shall first happen after such Minister shall have had Right to his Benefice for one half Year; and every Head, Principal or other Master aforesaid, of any of the said three Universities, on or before the fifteenth Day of January, that shall first happen after he hath held his Office for four Calendar Months; and every respective Minister, Head, Principal or Master, neglecting to notify his Election in the Form and Manner prescribed by the said recited Act, within the respective Times herein before limited, shall be deemed and held to have made his Election of the annual Rate of three Pounds eighteen Shillings and nine Pence, and shall be liable to the said Rate accordingly, during his Life.

Beneficed Ministers and Heads of the Universities to choose within a certain Time, to which of the yearly Rates they will be subject.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Lords of Council and Session in Scotland, or any one of them, to issue Letters of Horning, at the Instance of the General Collector or Receiver for the time being, of the annual Rates or other Sums imposed by the said recited Act, against all and every the Ministers of the Church of Scotland, and Heads, Principals and Masters in the Universities, subject or liable to the same, for compelling Payment of their annual or other Rates or Sums, Principal or Interest, to the Payment of which they or any of them are or may be liable by virtue of the said recited Act; and that the said Letters of Horning shall be executed, and other Proceedings shall be had thereon, in the same Form and Manner as is now in Use and authorized by Law, with respect to Hornings at the Instance of the Ministers of the said Church of Scotland, for compelling Payment of their Stipends; and that no Suspension of any Charge to be given in virtue of such Letters of Horning, shall be past without Consignation of the Sum charged for, as is also in Use, and authorized by Law in the aforesaid Case; any Law or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Lords of Session, upon Application, to issue Letters of Horning for Payment of the Rates.

Methods of executing the Letters.

III And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees for the time being, executing the said Act, and they are hereby required to stop and deduct the one Half of every Annuity which shall become payable for the first Time, at the Term of Whitsunday one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, or at any Term of Witsunday thereafter, to the Widow of every Minister of the Church of Scotland, and of every Head, Principal or Master, in any of the three Universities above mentioned, subject and liable to the annual Rates aforesaid, who shall not have paid, during the Time of and by his being a Contributor to the said Fund, a Sum equal to three Years Amount of the Annuity correspendent to his annual Rate, and the like at every succeeding Term of Whitsunday, during the Life of such Widow, until either she shall pay into the Fund, or until such Stoppages and Deductions shall amount to as much, as together with the Sums paid by her Husband (without computing any Interest thereon) shall make up or be equal to three Years of her Annuity; and that it shall and may be lawful for the Trustees aforesaid, and they are hereby required to stop and detain out of the Sum or Provision which shall become payable, at the said Term of Whitsunday one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, or at any Term of Whitsunday thereafter, to the Child or Children of every Minister, Head, Principal or Master, subject and liable to the annual Rates aforesaid, who shall not have paid a Sum equal to the Amount of three Years Annuity corresponding to his annual Rate, so much as, together with the Sums paid by him, or that may have been deducted from his Widow (without computing Interest thereon) shall make up or be equal to three Years of the said corresponding Annuity; and the Widows or Children aforesaid shall only be intitled, in the respective Cases and Events aforesaid, to the Remainder, after the said respective Stoppages or Deductions of Annuities or Sums provided to them severally by the said recited Act; any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Trustees to stop one Half of every Annuity where the Contributor, &c. shall not have paid to the Fund a Sum equal to 3 Years Amount of such Annuity, &c.

Certain Sums to be applied yearly for raiſing a Fund of 30l. in the Hands of every Miniſter, and the Heads of the Univerſities; and a Capital of 50,000l. to be lent out as directed by recited Act.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Truſtees named in or appointed by the ſaid recited Act, and acting for the time being in the Execution thereof, ſhall order and direct, and take Care, that the Sums after mentioned ſhall be applied, from Year to Year, out of the firſt and readieſt of the whole Produce, in virtue of the aforeſaid recited Act, after defraying the annual Expence of Management (as ſettled and limited by the ſaid recited Act and this preſent Act) for and towards raiſing and ſecuring a Stock or Fund to the Extent of thirty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to and in the Hands of each Miniſter in the Church of Scotland, and each Head, Principal or Maſter, in the ſaid Univerſities of Saint Andrews, Glaſgow and Edinburgh, who ſhall have become ſubject to one or other of the annual Rates above mentioned; and a further Sum of fifty thouſand Pounds like Money, of Capital, by their lending or cauſing to be lent out of the after mentioned Sums annually, in the Manner preſcribed in and by the ſaid Act; that is to ſay, Three thouſand Pounds ſhall be ſo applied at the Term of Whitſunday in each of the Years, from one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-nine, to one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-two, both incluſive; two thouſand Pounds at the Term of Whitſunday in each of the Years from one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-three to one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-ſix, both incluſive; one thouſand Pounds at the Term of Whitſunday in each of the Years, from one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-ſeven to one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three, both incluſive; four hundred Pounds at the Term of Whitſunday in each of the Years, from one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-four to one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy, both incluſive; and two hundred Pounds at the Term of Whitſunday in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one; and at the Term of Whitſunday in each Year thereafter, until each Miniſter, Head, Principal or Maſter, ſubject to one or other of the annual Rates aforeſaid, ſhall have received thirty Pounds in Loan; and likewiſe until the ſaid further Sum or Capital of fifty thouſand Pounds ſhall have been made up.

Surplus of the annual Produce how to be applied.

V. And be it further enacted, That if the annual Produce aforeſaid, in any one Year, computed from Martinmas to Martinmas, ſhall exceed the Charges of Management, and the Sums hereby ordered to be applied for raiſing the Stock, and the Annuities due to the Widows, and Proviſions due to the Children for that Year, and the Arrears of the Annuities and Proviſions for former Years herein after mentioned (if any ſuch were) ſuch Exceſs or Surplus ſhall be applied to the Purpoſe aforeſaid, of raiſing the Capital Stock or Fund, by lending out the ſame along with the Sums herein before appointed to be lent out for ſuch reſpective Year.

Deficiencies of the Surplus for Payment of the Annuities how to be made good.

VI. Provided always, and it is enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That although the annual Surplus aforeſaid, for any one Year, computed from Martinmas to Martinmas, after Payment of the Charges of Management, and of the Sum hereby appointed to be applied for raiſing of the Stock or Capital Fund for that Year, ſhall not be ſufficient to pay the whole Annuities to Widows, and Proviſions to Children, payable for that Year, in virtue of the ſaid recited Act, and of this preſent Act, yet no Incroachment ſhall on that Account be made upon the Capital, ſo far as then raiſed; nor ſhall the farther raiſing thereof, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act, be thereby ſtopped or retarded, but ſuch Deficiency or Short-coming ſhall firſt affect the Childrens Proviſions proportionably, and then the Annuities of all the Widows intitled proportionably, without Regard to the Order of Time in which thoſe Proviſions or Annuities become due; and the ſame ſhall again be made good to them out of the Surplus of the Produce, computed as aforeſaid, for the ſucceeding Year or Years, in this Order, viz. After Payment of the Expence of Management, and of the Sum to be applied for raiſing the Stock as aforeſaid, the Widows Annuities unpaid in the preceding Year, ſhall be paid and made good in the firſt Place; and then the Widows Annuities of the current Year; and after the ſaid Annuities, the Childrens Proviſions of the former Year or Years, according to the Order of Time in which they become due to them, as aforeſaid; and laſtly, the Childrens Proviſions for the current Year.

Capital Fund not to exceed 50,000l. over and above 30l. to be lent to each Miniſter, &c. Application of the Surplus.

VII. Provided alſo, and it is hereby enacted, That the Capital Fund or Stock to be ſettled and ſecured as aforeſaid, ſhall at no Time exceed the foreſaid Sum of fifty thouſand Pounds, over and above the Sum of thirty Pounds lent to each Miniſter, Head, Principal or Maſter as aforeſaid; and that after ſuch Capital ſhall be raiſed, the Surplus of the annual Income, under the Management of the Truſtees aforeſaid, ariſing in any one Year, computed from Martinmas to Martinmas, after Payment of all the Burdens of that Year, including the Arrears of former Yeare aforeſaid (if any be) ſhall, at the Whitſunday when ſuch Surplus ariſes, be diſtributed to, and divided amongſt, all the Widows then intitled to Annuities, and all the Children then intitled to receive Proviſions; ſo as that each Widow and each Child, ſhall receive a proportionable Share of ſuch Surplus, correſpondent to the Extent of the annual Rates of their deceaſed Huſbands or Fathers.

Regulations touching the Management of the Capital.

VIII. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that all and every other Regulation, enacted by the ſaid recited Act of the ſeventeenth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, touching the Securing and Management of the Capital Stock therein mentioned, and for making up any accidental Diminution of, or preventing any Encroachment upon the ſame, after it ſhall be made up, in Whole or in Part, ſhall ſubſiſt, take Place and be in Force, with Regard to the Capital Stock hereby permitted to be raiſed, when it ſhall be ſo raiſed in Whole or in Part, in the ſame Manner as if every one of the ſaid Regulations had been herein repeated and re-enacted.

'IX. And whereas the Old Church Iſle of Edinburgh was found to be a Place ſo inconvenient for the 'Meeting of the Truſtees appointed to execute the ſaid recited Act of Parliament, that ſoon after their en-'tering on the Execution thereof, they were obliged to build, and did cauſe to be built, a Houſe within the 'City of Edinburgh, containing a Hall for their Meetings, and Offices for their Collector and Clerk, and a 'Charter Room for the Preſervation of their Books and Papers, a great Part of the Expence of which 'Building remains yet unpaid: And whereas Doubts have been raiſed, whether the ſaid Truſtees can le-'gally hold any of the four Quarterly Meetings appointed by the ſaid recited Act, in the ſaid Hall; and 'whether the Debt incurred by the ſaid Building, and the Expence of keeping it in Repair, be ſuch neceſ-

'sary incidental Expences as fall within the Intendment of one of the Clauses herein before recited;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the fifteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, the Trustees named and appointed by the said recited Act of the seventeenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, and their Successors, shall hold the four stated regular Meetings yearly, appointed to be held by the said Act, upon the Days therein mentioned, in the Hall of the House aforesaid, built by the said Trustees within the City of Edinburgh; and that they may and shall do and act at such Meetings, in the same Manner as they might and ought to have done in the Old Church Isle of Edinburgh; and that the remaining Debt incurred by the said Trustees for building the said House, and the Expence in keeping the same in Repair, shall be held and deemed to be, and make a Part of the necessary incidental Expences of the said Trustees provided for by the said recited Act, and shall be paid by the General Collector or Receiver of the annual Rates, and other Sums raised or to be raised in virtue thereof, and shall be allowed to him out of the annual Receipts; provided the same, and all the other incidental Expences provided for by the said Act, do not, in any One Year, exceed the Sum of forty Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain.

Trustees to hold their annual Meetings in the House built by them;

and to pay the Debt incurred for building.

Incidental Expences not to exceed 40 l. per Annum.

'X. And whereas the Ministers, Heads, Principals or Masters, who were in the said Church, or any of 'the said Universities, at the Commencement of the said in Part recited Act, will purchase the Annuities 'to their Widows, and Provisions to their Children, at less Expence than future Intrants, having held their 'Benefices and Offices for a considerable Time, without the Burden of the present annual Rates;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That every such Minister, and every such Head, Principal or Master, shall, at the Term of Candlemas, in each of the Years of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-one, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-two, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-three, one thousand seven hundred and fifty-four, and one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five, according to the Computation in Scotland, pay to the General Collector, at his Office in Edinburgh, legal Interest of the thirty Pounds lent, or that shall be lent to him; and the Produce arising from the Difference betwixt the legal Interest and the four Pounds per Centum, now payable on Account of the Loans of thirty Pounds lent to the Contributors, shall be applied at the Sight, and by Direction of the Trustees for defraying the Expence incurred in obtaining this present Act of Parliament, and for paying whatever Sums shall, on the fifteenth of May one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, be resting of the Charge incurred by building the House within the City of Edinburgh, containing a Hall for the Meetings of the Trustees, Offices for their Collectors and Clerks, and a Charter Room for the Preservation of their Books and Papers; and the Surplus thereof shall go towards increasing the said Capital; and that the said additional Interests shall not be computed as any Part of the three Years Annuity, which every Contibutor is hereby obliged to make good to the Fund in the Manner already directed.

Ministers, &c. who were in the Church, &c. at the Commencement of the Act, to pay Interest of 30 l. for 6 Years.

Application of the Interests.

'XI. And whereas by the said in Part recited Act of the seventeenth Year of his Majesty's Reign, it 'was further enacted, That if the University of Aberdeen, or any of the Colleges therein, should apply to 'the then next General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, declaring, that they desired to be compre-'hended in that Act, the Heads, Principals and Masters in the said University of Aberdeen, or in either 'of the Colleges of the said University, should be comprehended in that Act, and should be subject to 'the annual Rates and other Burdens thereby imposed; and they, and their Widows and Children respec-'tively, should be intitled to the Privileges and Provisions therein contained, in like Manner, in all Re-'spects, as with respect to the Heads, Principals and Masters in the Universities of Saint Andrews and 'Glasgow, was therein before enacted: And whereas Applications were accordingly made by the King's 'College of Aberdeen, and by the Mareshall College of Aberdeen, to the General Assembly of the Church of 'Scotland, which was held at Edinburgh in the Month of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven 'hundred and forty-four, by which the said Colleges respectively declared, that they desired to be com-'prehended in the said Act;' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Heads, Principals and Masters in the said University of Aberdeen, or in the King's College and Mareshall College of Aberdeen, shall be comprehended in this present Act, and be deemed to have been comprehended in the said in Part recited Act, and shall be subject to the annual Rates and other Burdens thereby or by this Act imposed; and their Widows and Children respectively shall be entitled to the Privileges and Provisions therein contained, subject to the Variations by this Act provided, in like Manner in all Respects, as, with respect to the Heads, Principals and Masters in the Universities of Saint Andrews and Glasgow, was by the said in Part recited Act, and is herein before enacted.

The Heads, &c. of the University of Aberdeen, comprehended in this and the recited Act, &c.

XII. And it is hereby further enacted and declared, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Publick Act; and all Judges, Justices and other Persons, are to take Notice thereof as such in all Courts and Places whatsoever, without specially pleading the same.

Publick Act.

That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-nine, if any ſworn Attorney or Solicitor ſhall act as Agent for any Perſon or Perſons, not duly qualified to act as an Attorney or Solicitor as aforeſaid, or permit or ſuffer his Name to be any ways made uſe of upon the Account, or for the Profit of any unqualified Perſon or Perſons, or ſend any Proceſs to ſuch unqualified Perſon or Perſons, thereby to enable him or them to appear, act, or practiſe in any Reſpect as an Attorney or Solicitor, knowing him not to be duly qualified as aforeſaid, and Complaint ſhall be made thereof in a ſummary Way to the Court from whence any ſuch Proceſs did iſſue, and Proof made thereof, upon Oath, to the Satisfaction of the Court, that ſuch ſworn Attorney or Solicitor hath offended therein as aforeſaid; then, and in ſuch Caſe, every ſuch Attorney or Solicitor ſo offending

to be ſtruck off the Roll,

and to be committed,

ſhall be ſtruck off the Roll, and for ever after diſabled from practiſing as an Attorney or Solicitor; and in that Caſe, and upon ſuch Complaint and Proof made as aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Court to commit ſuch unqualified Perſon, ſo acting or practiſing as aforeſaid, to the Priſon of the ſaid Court, for any Time not exceeding one Year.

'XII. And whereas frequent Delays, Inconveniencies and unneceſſary Expences ariſe and happen, as well to Pariſhes as private Perſons, by the Miſmanagement and Unſkilfulneſs of Perſons employed as Solicitors or Agents at the Seſſions held for the ſeveral Counties, Ridings, Diviſions, Cities, Towns Corporate, and other Places of this Kingdom, who having never been regularly bred to the Law, and being ignorant of the Forms and Operations thereof, Offenders againſt the Laws of the Land have frequently eſcaped with Impunity:' For remedying therefore of theſe Inconveniencies, Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, None to act as Attornies who were not admitted according to 2 Geo. 2. c. 23.

That from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September which ſhall be in the Year of our Lord one thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-nine, no Perſon whatſoever ſhall act as a Solicitor, Attorney or Agent, or ſue out any Proceſs, at any General or Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace for any County, Riding, Diviſion, City, Town Corporate or other Place within this Kingdom, either with reſpect to Matters of a Criminal or Civil Nature, unleſs ſuch Perſon ſhall have been heretofore admitted an Attorney of one of his Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, and duly inrolled pursuant to an Act made in the second Year of his present Majesty's Reign (intituled, An Act for the better Regulation of Attornies and Solicitors) or unless such Person shall hereafter be admitted an Attorney, and inrolled as aforesaid by virtue of this Act, or such other Law as shall be then in being, and unless such Person shall continue so entered upon the Roll, at the Time of such his acting in the Capacity aforesaid; but all and every Person or Persons respectively, who shall so act, not being admitted and inrolled as aforesaid, shall be subject and liable to a Penalty of fifty Pounds; to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of the Courts of Record at Westminster, by any Person or Persons who shall sue for the same, within twelve Months after the Offence committed, with treble Costs of Suit; and if any Attorney or Attornies shall permit and suffer any Person or Persons whatsoever, not being admitted and inrolled as aforesaid, to make use of his or their Name or Names respectively, in the Courts of General or Quarter-Sessions aforesaid, such Attorney or Attornies respectively shall be subject and liable to a like Penalty of fifty Pounds, to be recovered in Manner aforesaid.

No Clerk of the Peace, Under Sheriff, &c. to act as Attornies, &c. at Quarter-Sessions for the County, &c. Penalty 50 l.

'XV. And whereas several Persons have been bound by Articles in Writing to Attornies of one of his 'Majesty's Courts at Westminster, to serve them as their Clerks for the Term of five Years, which Attor-'nies have died before the Expiration of the said five Years, and after their Deaths such Persons so bound 'have served the Remainder of the said Term with some other Attornies of the said Courts, but have ne-'glected to enter into Articles with the said other Attornies for the Remainder of the Term of five Years, 'and therefore Doubts have arisen, whether such Persons could be admitted Attornies of any of his Ma-'jesty's Courts, by reason that such Service was not strictly in pursuance of the Direction of the before-'mentioned Act;' Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That all such Persons who shall have been so bound as aforesaid for the Term of five Years to Attornies of any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster, which said Attornies shall have died before the Determination of the said Term, if such Persons shall afterwards, and before the twenty-fifth Day of March one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine, have served the Residue of the said Term of five Years, with some other Attornies of one of his Majesty's said Courts, though without entering into any new Articles, such Persons having so served during the said Term of five Years, shall and may be admitted Attornies in any of his Majesty's Courts at Westminster; any thing in the said Act, or in this present Act, contained to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

Persons admitted sworn Clerks in the Office of the Six Clerks, or bound for five Years, &c. may be admitted Solicitors.

XVII. Provided also, and it is hereby further enacted, That if any sworn Clerk in the said Six Clerks Office, with and to whom any Person hath been, or shall be bound by Contract in Writing as aforesaid, to serve as a Clerk for the Term of five Years, shall happen to die before the Expiration of the said Term of five Years, or if such Contract shall, by mutual Consent of the Parties, be vacated, or in case such Clerk be legally discharged by any Rule or Order of the Court of Chancery, before the Expiration of the said Term of five Years; then, and in any of the said Cases, if such Clerk shall by Contract in Writing be obliged to serve, and shall accordingly serve as a Clerk to any other sworn Clerk in the said Six Clerks Office, or to any Solicitor who shall be sworn, admitted and inrolled, pursuant to the said Act of the second Year of his present Majesty, during the Residue of the said Term of five Years, then such Service shall be deemed and taken to be as good and effectual as if such Clerk had continued to serve as a Clerk for the Term of five Years to the same Person to whom he was originally bound by Contract in Writing as aforesaid.

Clerks, whose Masters have died, &c. entering into fresh Contracts, and serving the Residue of their Time, the same to be effectual.

XVIII. Provided always, and it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That no sworn Clerk in the said Six Clerks Office shall have more than two Clerks at one and the same Time, including the Clerk who shall be entered on the Roll kept by the Master of the Rolls, or his Secretary, for that Purpose.

No sworn Clerk to have more than two Clerks.

XIX. Provided also, and it is hereby further declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the Taking or Binding, Examination, Swearing, Admission or Inrolment of the Attornies, or Clerks of the Offices of the King's Remembrancer, Persons exempted.

and in caſe the ſaid Mortgagees and Incumbrancers ſhould not ſo agree, then to 'agree with any other Perſon or Perſons for the advancing Money at any leſs Rate or Intereſt than aforeſaid, 'for paying off the Principal Money due on the ſaid Mortgages and Incumbrances, upon the ſame being 'aſſigned unto ſuch Perſon or Perſons reſpectively ſo advancing ſuch Money; provided that ſuch Aſſign-'ments ſhould be made for the reſpective Principal Money only of the ſaid Mortgages and Incumbrances, 'and for the Intereſt of ſuch Principal Money to grow due, from and after the making of ſuch Aſſignments 'reſpectively; and that the ſaid Principal Money, and Intereſt thereof, in all ſuch Aſſignments, ſhould be 'made payable at the End of ſix Months at the fartheſt, from the Day of the making ſuch Aſſignments re-'ſpectively: In which ſaid laſt-recited Act there is contained the like Saving to his Majeſty, and to all other 'Perſons, as in the ſaid Act of the eighth Year of his ſaid preſent Majeſty's Reign is contained; as by the 'ſaid ſeveral recited Acts of Parliament may (amongſt other Things therein contained) more fully appear: 'And whereas the ſaid Sum of ſeven thouſand one hundred and eighty-two Pounds thirteen Shillings, ſo 'remaining in his Majeſty's Exchequer as aforeſaid, was applied according to the Directions of the ſaid re-'cited Act of the eighth Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign; and all the Eſtate, Right, Title and In-'tereſt, of the ſaid Robert James Lord Petre, and Anna Maria Lady Petre his Wife, of, in and to the ſaid 'Barony, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and in and to the ſaid Term of five hundred 'Years, and of, in and to the ſaid twenty thouſand Pounds, to hold the ſame to the ſaid Governor and Com-'pany of the Bank of England, their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, for the Reſidue then to come of the ſaid Term of five hundred Years, subject to a Proviso for Redemption, on Payment of the said Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, with Interest for the same, at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, on the eleventh Day of November then next; and the said Commissioners or Governors of the said Hospital having, since the Time limited by the said Proviso, paid out of the Monies belonging to the said Hospital, the said Sum of twenty thousand Pounds, with all Interest due for the same, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England did, by Indenture bearing Date the sixteenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, bargain, sell and assign, unto the Right Honourable Archibald Hamilton Esquire, commonly called Lord Archibald Hamilton, Governor of the said Royal Hospital, Charles Smith Esquire, Lieutenant Governor of the said Hospital, James Gunman Esquire, Treasurer of the said Hospital, Sir Edward Bellamy Knight (since deceased) Sir John Thompson Knight, William Fawkener Esquire, and William Baxter Esquire, seven of the Commissioners or Governors of the said Hospital, the Barony, Manors, Lands and Hereditaments, so limited to the said Earl of Plymouth and Lord Widdrington, for the Term of five hundred Years, as aforesaid, and all the Estate, Right, Title and Interest of the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, of, in and to the said Barony, Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, and in and to the said Term of five hundred Years, to hold the same unto the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir Edward Bellamy, Sir John Thompson, William Fawkener and William Baxter, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, for the Remainder then to come of the said Term of five hundred Years, in Trust, and to the Intent that the Rents, Issues and Profits of the said Premisses, should and might be appropriated, applied and disposed of, to the Uses, and for the Purposes directed in and by the said Act of Parliament made in the said eighth Year of the Reign of his said present Majesty, and for that Purpose that the said Term and Estate might attend and wait upon the Freehold and Inheritance thereof, as the same was then vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors: And whereas the said Cuthbert Constable, alias Tunstall, having refused to accept of any less Rate or Interest for the said Principal Sum of five thousand and nine hundred Pounds, mentioned in the said recited Act of the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign to be due to him upon Mortgage, than the same was then at (and which Sum of five thousand and nine hundred Pounds, and the Interest thereof, was heretofore secured to the said Lady Mary Radcliffe, by a Mortgage made to her by the said Edward Earl of Derwentwater of the said Manors of Spindleston and Utchester, for the Term of five hundred Years, by Indenture bearing Date the twenty-second Day of April one thousand six hundred and ninety-nine, pursuant to a Power given him for that Purpose by a certain Act of Parliament therein mentioned, in full Satisfaction of the said Sum of five thousand Pounds, directed by the said recited Indenture of Release of the twenty-fourth of March one thousand six hundred and ninety-one, to be raised for her, and the Interest thereof to that Time, and to which Sum of five thousand nine hundred Pounds the said Cuthbert Constable, alias Tunstall, became intitled by virtue of the Will of the said Lady Mary Radcliffe, of which Will he was then the surviving Executor); and the said Sir Charles Wager, Sir Thomas Littleton, Sir Thomas Frankland and Sir Jacob Ackworth, Thomas Pearse, George Purvis, Josiah Burchett, Tudor Trevor, Nicholas Clarke and William Baxter, having agreed with the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, for advancing Money at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for paying off the said Sum of five thousand nine hundred Pounds, the said Cuthbert Constable, alias Tunstall, in Consideration of the said Sum of five thousand nine hundred Pounds paid to him by the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, did, by the Appointment and Direction of the said Sir Charles Wager, Sir Thomas Littleton, Sir Thomas Frankland, Sir Jacob Ackworth, Thomas Pearse, George Purvis, Josiah Burchett, Tudor Trevor, Nicholas Clarke and William Baxter, grant, bargain, sell and assign to the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors and Assigns, the said Manors of Spindleston and Utchester, to hold the same unto the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and their Successors and Assigns, for the Remainder then to come of the said Term of five hundred Years, by the said Indenture of the twenty-second Day of April one thousand six hundred and ninety-nine, granted, subject to a Proviso for the surrendering and assigning the said Premisses to the said Sir Charles Wager, Sir Thomas Littleton, Sir Thomas Frankland, Sir Jacob Ackworth, Thomas Pearse, George Purvis, Josiah Burchett, Tudor Trevor, Nicholas Clarke and William Baxter, their Executors, Administrators or Assigns, or to such Person or Persons as they should appoint and direct, on Payment of the said Sum of five thousand nine hundred Pounds, with Interest for the same, at the Rate of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, at the Time therein mentioned; and the Commissioners or Governors of the said Hospital, or some of them, having since paid out of the Monies and Revenues belonging to the said Hospital, the said Sum of five thousand nine hundred Pounds, with all Interest due for the same, the said Governor and Company of the Bank of England did, by another Indenture bearing Date the said sixteenth Day of February one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, bargain, sell and assign unto the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir Edward Bellamy, Sir John Thompson, William Fawkener and William Baxter, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, the said Manors of Spindleston and Utchester, to hold the same unto the said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir Edward Bellamy, Sir John Thompson, William Fawkener and William Baxter, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, for the Remainder then to come of the said last mentioned Term of five hundred Years, in Trust, and to the Intent that the Rents, Issues and Profits of the said Manors and Premisses, should and might be appropriated, applied and disposed, to the Uses, and for the Purposes, directed in and by the said Act of Parliament made in the said eighth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty; and for that Purpose, that the said Term and Estate might attend and wait upon the Freehold and Inheritance thereof as the same was then vested in his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors: And whereas the said Mary Chamberlain, Edward Hopkins and Anna Maria his Wife, and Richard Luther and Charlotte his Wife, did, immediately after the passing the said recited Act, made in the eleventh Year of his Majesty's Reign, agree with the Commissioners or Governors of the said Hospital to accept of four Pounds per Centum per Annum, for the Interest of the said Principal Sum of three

'thousand Pounds, mentioned in the said recited Act of the eighth Year of his present Majesty's Reign to 'be due to them upon Mortgage (which Sum of three thousand Pounds was, by the said Edward Earl of 'Derwentwater, by a certain Deed Poll, bearing Date the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand six 'hundred and ninety-nine, pursuant to a Power to him given by a certain Indenture of Release, bearing 'Date the twentieth Day of May in the third Year of the Reign of his Majesty King JAMES the Second, 'charged upon the said Barony, Manor or Lordship of Langley, and several other of the Manors, Lands 'and Hereditaments before-mentioned, and other the Lands in the said Deed Poll mentioned, for the Por-'tion of his Daughter Lady Tudor Radcliffe, and which Sum of three thousand Pounds was afterwards as-'signed to Hugh Chamberlain Doctor in Physick, by William Petre junior Esquire, who intermarried with 'the said Lady Tudor Radcliffe; and the said Lady Tudor his Wife, by Indenture Tripartite, bearing Date 'the first Day of July one thousand seven hundred and twenty-two, in the Manner in the said Indenture 'mentioned; and which said Hugh Chamberlain afterwards died, having first made his last Will and Testa-'ment in Writing, and two Codicils thereunto, and appointed his three Daughters, the said Mary Cham-'berlain, Anna Maria Hopkins and Charlotte Luther, Executrixes of his Will); but the said Edward Hop-'kins, having afterwards died, and the said Mary Chamberlain, Anna Maria Hopkins, Richard Luther and 'Charlotte his Wife, having thought fit to call in the said Principal Sum of three thousand Pounds, the 'Commissioners or Governors of the said Hospital did, out of the Monies and Revenues belonging to the 'said Hospital pay the said Sum of three thousand Pounds, and all Interest due for the same; and thereupon 'the said Mary Chamberlain, Anna Maria Hopkins, Richard Luther and Charlotte his Wife, did by Inden-'ture, bearing Date the sixteenth Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight, assign unto the 'said Archibald Hamilton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir Edward Bellamy, Sir John Thompson, William 'Fawkener and William Baxter, their Executors, Administrators and Assigns, the said Sum of three thou-'sand Pounds, and all Interest thereafter to grow due for the same, and all their Estate and Interest in and 'to the said Manor or Lordship of Langley, and other the Manors, Lands and Hereditaments, by the said 'last-mentioned Deed Poll charged with the said Sum of three thousand Pounds and Interest (except as 'therein is mentioned) to hold the said Barony, Manors, Lands and Hereditaments (except as therein is 'mentioned) and the said Sum of three thousand Pounds charged thereon, unto the said Archibald Hamil-'ton, Charles Smith, James Gunman, Sir Edward Bellamy, Sir John Thompson, William Fawkener and Wil-'liam Baxter, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, upon Trust, to and for the Use and Be-'nefit of the said Royal Hospital at Greenwich: And whereas the aforesaid Charles Radcliffe did, after his 'having been so attainted as aforesaid, inter-marry with the Right Honourable Charlotte Countess of New-'burgh, by whom he had Issue two Sons, namely James Bartholomew Radcliffe, commonly called Lord Ke-'naird, his eldest Son, who was born in France, out of his Majesty's Allegiance, on the twenty-fifth Day 'of August one thousand seven hundred and twenty-five, and James Clement Radcliffe his youngest Son, and 'three Daughters, to wit, the Lady Charlotte Radcliffe, Lady Barbara Radcliffe and Lady Mary Radcliffe, 'who were all also born out of his Majesty's Allegiance in Parts beyond the Seas, and all of them (except 'the said Lary Mary Radcliffe) have attained their respective Ages of twenty-one Years: And whereas by 'a Clause in an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE (intituled, 'An Act for the naturalizing Foreign Protestants) it was enacted, That the Children of all natural-born 7 Annæ, c. 5. 'Subjects, born out of the Legiance of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, should be deemed, adjudg-'ed and taken to be natural-born Subjects of this Kingdom, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes 'whatsoever: And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the fourth Year of his present Majesty's 'Reign (intituled, An Act to explain a Clause in an Act made in the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Ma- 4 Geo. 2. c. 21. 'jesty Queen ANNE, For naturalizing Foreign Protestants, which relates to the Children of the natural-born 'Subjects of the Crown of England, or of Great Britain) it was enacted, That all Children, born out of the 'Legiance of the Crown of England, or of Great Britain, or which should thereafter be born out of such 'Legiance, whose Fathers were or should be natural-born Subjects of the Crown of England, or of Great 'Britain, at the Time of the Birth of such Children respectively, should and might, by virtue of the said 'recited Clause in the said Act of the seventh Year of the Reign of her late Majesty, and of that Act, be 'adjudged and taken to be, and all such Children were thereby declared to be natural-born Subjects of the 'Crown of Great Britain, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatsoever; but it was by the said Act 'provided, and further declared and enacted, That nothing in the said recited Act of the seventh Year of 'her said late Majesty's Reign, or in that Act contained, did or should extend, or ought to be construed, 'adjudged, or taken to extend, to make any Children, born or to be born out of the Legiance of the Crown 'of England, or of the Crown of Great Britain, to be natural-born Subjects of the Crown of England or 'of Great Britain, whose Fathers, at the Birth of such Children respectively, were or should be attainted 'of High Treason, by Judgment, Outlawry or otherwise, either in this Kingdom or in Ireland; or whose 'Fathers, at the Time of the Birth of such Children respectively, by any Law or Laws made in this King-'dom, or in Ireland, were or should be liable to the Penalties of High Treason or Felony, in case of their 'returning into this Kingdom, or into Ireland, without the Licence of his Majesty, his Heirs or Succes-'sors, or of any of his Majesty's Royal Predecessors; or whose Fathers, at the Time of the Birth of such 'Children respectively, were or should be in the actual Service of any foreign Prince or State then in En-'mity with the Crown of England, or of Great Britain; but that all such Children were, and should be 'and remain in the same State, Plight and Condition, to all Intents, Constructions and Purposes whatso-'ever, as they would have been in, if the said Act of the seventh Year of her said late Majesty's Reign, or 'that Act, had never been made, as by the said two last-mentioned Acts of Parliament may more fully ap-'pear: And whereas the said James Bartholomew Radcliffe, commonly called Lord Kenaird, hath made a 'most dutiful Representation to your Majesty; wherein, after having set forth the several Limitations con-'tained in the said Settlement of the twenty-fourth of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, and the 'several Attainders of the said James Earl of Derwentwater, and Charles Radcliffe his Father, and his being

'the firſt Son of the Body of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe, and the ſeveral Acts of Parliament herein before-
'recited, relating to the ſaid forfeited Eſtates, and that, by virtue thereof, the ſaid Manors, Lands and 'Hereditaments, comprized in the ſaid laſt-mentioned Settlement, became veſted in your Majeſty, your
'Heirs and Succeſſors, according to ſuch Eſtates and Intereſt as the ſaid attainted Perſons had therein at
'the Times mentioned in the ſaid firſt recited Act, he the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe did, in all Hu-
'mility, ſhew to your Majeſty, that being adviſed that your Majeſty's Eſtate and Intereſt in the Manors,
'Lands and Hereditaments, comprized in the ſaid Settlement, under the ſaid Acts, did determine on the 'Death of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe, he the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe did well hope, that the Com-
'miſſioners and Governors of Greenwich Hoſpital would have admitted him to be intitled, from the Time of 'the Death of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe, to the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid laſt-mentioned Manors, Lands, and
'Hereditaments, under the Limitations contained in the ſaid Settlement of the twenty-fourth of June one
'thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, to the firſt and other Sons of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe in Tail
'Male; but that he found the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors did not look on your Majeſty's Eſtates and
'Intereſts in the ſaid Premiſſes to be determined, but did conſider the ſaid Right, Title, Claim and In-
'tereſt, which the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe pretended to under the ſaid Settlement of the twenty-
'fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, to be null and void, inaſmuch as neither the 'Truſtees for preſerving the contingent Remainders under the ſaid Settlement, nor any other Perſon for or
'on the Behalf of the firſt and other Sons of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe, had made any Claim before the 'Commiſſioners appointed by the ſaid recited Acts of the firſt and fourth Years of his late Majeſty, for the 'determining Claims as aforeſaid: And the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe did alſo ſhew to your Maje-
'ſty, that he found it might be objected to him, that, as he was born within the Dominions of the French
'King, in the Year one thouſand ſeven hundred and twenty-five, and out of your Majeſty's Legiance, he 'was to be conſidered as an Alien, and was to be excluded from all Right and Title to the ſaid Eſtates,
'although he was born of natural-born Subjects, as before is mentioned; and thereupon the ſaid James
'Bartholomew Radcliffe did moſt humbly repreſent it to your Majeſty, that if he ſhould be found to be an
'Alien under the ſaid Act of the fourth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, it could not be of any Avail to
'him to litigate the Queſtion touching the Neceſſity there was, under the Act of his late Majeſty, to enter
'a Claim in Behalf of an unborn Perſon; and as the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe was abſolutely un-
'able to bear the Expence of ſuch a Litigation, he did therefore ſubmit to your Majeſty's Conſideration
'ſeveral Reaſons and Arguments in Support of his Right and Title to the ſaid Eſtates, and whether he 'was to be conſidered as an Alien or not; and although he was to be conſidered as an Alien, in which
'Caſe he would be incapable to hold any Eſtate againſt the Crown, yet nevertheleſs he did contend, that 'he was capable for the Benefit of the Crown, to take ſuch Eſtate and Intereſt as was limited to him by the
'ſaid Settlement; in regard whereof, and of the many ſingular Hardſhips attending his Caſe, he did hum-
'bly beſeech your Majeſty to extend your Grace and Favour to him, and to grant him ſuch Relief for his 'Support, as the Circumſtances of his Caſe ſhould require: And whereas your Majeſty, out of your
'Princely Clemency, and from thoſe Motives of Goodneſs and Compaſſion, which are inherent in your
'Royal Nature, hath been pleaſed to ſignify to your Parliament, That your Majeſty was graciouſly incli-
'ed, that ſome Relief ſhould be granted to the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe, ſo as the ſame ſhould be
'conſiſtent with the juſt Rights of Greenwich Hoſpital: And whereas the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors
'of the ſaid Hoſpital are adviſed, That great Doubts may ariſe, whether upon the Conſtruction of the
'true Intent of the ſaid Act of the firſt Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King GEORGE the Firſt,
'and of the ſaid other Act of the fourth Year of his Reign, the Uſe and Eſtate in Remainder limited by
'the ſaid Settlement of the twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, to the firſt
'and other Sons of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe, was loſt and deſtroyed, by reaſon that the ſame was not
'claimed before the Commiſſioners and Truſtees appointed by the ſaid Act, for and on the Behalf of ſuch
'firſt and other Sons, within the Time preſcribed by the ſaid Acts; and it may alſo be doubted, whether
'the Claim made in Behalf of the ſaid John Radcliffe of the precedent Uſe and Eſtate limited to him, and
'the Allowance thereof by the Court of Delegates, in ſuch Manner as before is mentioned, did not reveſt
'all the Manors and Hereditaments comprized in the ſaid Settlement of one thouſand ſeven hundred and
'twelve, to the ſeveral Uſes limited in and by the ſaid Settlement, with ſuch Remainders as therein are
'expreſſed: And the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors are alſo adviſed, That in caſe the ſaid Act ſhould
'not extend to make the ſaid Uſe and Eſtate in Remainder, limited by the ſaid Settlement to the firſt and
'other Sons of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe (they not being born or in being at the Time of the ſaid Acts,
'and therefore not being Perſons actually having any Eſtate and Intereſt at that Time) abſolutely null and
'void, then the Eſtate and Intereſt of your Majeſty, and conſequently the Right and Title of the ſaid Ho-
'ſpital, which depends on the Continuance thereof, may be conſidered as having determined on the Death
'of the ſaid Charles Radcliffe; and if the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe ſhould be conſidered as an Alien,
'then a new Right might accrue to your Majeſty, in virtue of your Prerogative Royal, ſo ſoon as an In-
'quiſition ſhould be taken, finding the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe to be an Alien accordingly: In 'regard of all which, and many other Doubts and Difficulties, the ſaid Commiſſioners and Governors are
'adviſed, That it will be for the Intereſt and Advantage of the ſaid Hoſpital to conſent that the ſaid Ma-
'nors, Lands and Hereditaments, ſhall ſtand charged with the raiſing ſuch Sum of Money as herein after is
'mentioned; ſo as that the Right and Title of the ſaid Hoſpital to the ſaid Manors, Lands and Heredita-
'ments, may be fully eſtabliſhed, and that the Fee and Inheritance thereof may be abſolutely veſted in
'Truſtees for the Uſe and Benefit of the ſaid Hoſpital for ever, free and diſcharged from all the Right, Ti'tle, Claim and Demand of the ſaid James Bartholomew Radcliffe, and of his Majeſty in his Right, and of
'all others claiming by or under any of the Limitations contained in the ſaid Settlement, ſo dated the ſaid
'twenty-fourth Day of June one thouſand ſeven hundred and twelve, as aforeſaid; and ſo that the ſaid
'Commiſſioners and Governors of the ſaid Hoſpital may have and exerciſe full Power to cut down and 'make

'make Sale of the Timber on the Premisses for the Benefit of the said Hospital, as they shall think fit, and 'to make such Leases of the same, and of the Mines open or unopen, as they shall think proper: And 'whereas the said Charlotte Countess of Newburgh, for and on the Behalf of the said James Clement Rad-'cliffe, her second Son, and the said Lady Charlotte Radcliffe, Lady Barbara Radcliffe, and Lady Mary 'Radcliffe, hath most humbly implored your Majesty to extend your Royal Grace and Favour to them, 'humbly representing, That if no Relief should be granted to them, they will be destitute of all manner 'of Provision after the Death of the said Countess of Newburgh; and the said James Bartholomew Radcliffe 'is consenting, That all the Right, Title and Interest, which he or his Issue Male hath or can have, to the 'Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, comprized in the said Settlement of the twenty-fourth 'Day of June one thousand seven hundred and twelve, shall be extinguished by Authority of Parliament, 'and that the absolute Fee-simple, and Inheritance of the said Premisses, shall be so vested in the said Royal 'Hospital at Greenwich, and their Successors for ever: And whereas your Majesty has been graciously pleas-'ed to signify to your Parliament, That your Majesty was willing and desirous, and gave your Consent, 'that the Parliament might make whatever Disposition and Settlement they should think fit of the Interest 'your Majesty hath or may have in the said Estates, so as the same be for the Use and Benefit of the Royal 'Hospital at Greenwich, with the Allowance which shall be thought proper to be made thereout for the Re-'lief of the Children of the said Charles Radcliffe:' Wherefore your Majesty's faithful Commons in Parlia-ment assembled, do humbly beseech your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That all the said Barony, Manor or Lordship of Langley, with the Rights, Members and Appurtenances thereof, in the County of Northumberland; and also all those the said Manors of Whitting stall alias Quitting stall, and Newlands, Dilston alias Develston, Aydon Shields, Warke, Elrington and Meldon, and every of them, with their and every of their Rights, Members and Appurtenances in the said County of Northumberland; and all those the said Manors or reputed Manors of Spindleston, Utchester, Throckley, Coastley, Middleton Hall, East Thornton, alias Thornton East, Westwood and Thornborough, and every of them, with their and every of their Rights, Members and Appurtenances in the said County of Northumberland; and also all that the Advowson of the said Church of Symonburne, with the Appurtenances in the said County of Northumberland; and also all those the said Manors or reputed Manors of Castlerigg and Derwentwater, alias Keswick and Thornthwaite, with their and every of their Rights, Members and Appurtenances in the County of Cumberland; An Act for the effectual punishing of Persons convicted of seducing Artificers in the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, out of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and to prevent the Exportation of Utensils made use of in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures from Great Britain or Ireland, into foreign Parts; and for the more easy and speedy Determination of Appeals, allowed in certain Cases, by an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, relating to Persons employed in the several Manufactures therein mentioned.

5 Geo. 1. c. 27.

'WHEREAS by an Act made in the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act to prevent the Inconveniencies arising from seducing Artificers in the Manufactures of Great Britain, into foreign Parts; it is amongst other Things enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall contract with, entice, endeavour to persuade or solicit any Manufacturer or Artificer of or in Wooll, Iron, Steel, Brass or any other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer or Manufacturer of Great Britain, to go out of this Kingdom, into any foreign Country out of his Majesty's Dominions, and shall be lawfully convicted thereof, in the Manner prescribed by the said Act; the Person and Persons so convict shall be fined any Sum not exceeding one hundred Pounds for such first Offence, according to the Discretion of the Court, in which such Conviction shall be, and shall be imprisoned for the Space of three Months, and until such Fine shall be paid; and if any Person or Persons having been once convict as aforesaid, shall offend again, and be so convict a second Time of the like Offence, then, and in such Case, the Person so convict a second Time, shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, where such Conviction shall be, and shall be imprisoned for twelve Months, and until such Fine shall be paid: And whereas, notwithstanding the Penalties to which Offenders against the said Act are thereby subjected, divers wicked and evil-disposed Persons have of late seduced into foreign Parts several Artificers in the Woollen and other Manufactures; and it is therefore become necessary to make some further and more effectual Provision, to deter such Persons from committing the said Offences, so destructive to the Trade of this Kingdom:' Therefore, for preventing the said pernicious Practices for the future, and for explaining, amending and rendering more effectual the said Act, Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if at any Time after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty, any Person or Persons shall contract with, entice, persuade or endeavour to persuade, solicit or seduce any Manufacturer, Workman or Artificer of or in Wooll, Mohair, Cotton or Silk, or of or in any Manufactures made up of Wooll, Mohair, Cotton or Silk, or any of the said Materials mixed one with another, or of or in Iron, Steel, Brass or any other Metal, or any Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Manufacturer, Workman or Artificer of or in any other of the Manufactures of Great Britain or Ireland, of what Nature or Kind soever, to go out of this Kingdom, or out of the Kingdom of Ireland, into any foreign Country, not within the Dominions of or belonging to the Crown of Great Britain; and shall be lawfully convicted thereof upon any Indictment or Information to be preferred or brought against him, her or them, in his Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Westminster, or by Indictment at the Assizes or General Gaol Delivery for the County, Riding or Division, wherein such Offence shall be committed (if such Offence shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called England) or by Indictment in the Court of Justiciary, or any of the Circuit Courts in Scotland (if such Offence shall be committed in that Part of Great Britain called Scotland) or by Indictment or Information in his Majesty's Court of King's Bench at Dublin (if such Offence shall be committed in Ireland) the Person or Persons so convicted, shall, for every Artificer, Workman or Manufacturer, so by him, her or them respectively contracted with, enticed, persuaded, solicited or seduced, severally forfeit the Sum of five hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain; and shall also suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County, Riding, Division, Shire or Stewartry, wherein such Offender or Offenders shall be respectively convicted, for the Space of twelve Calendar Months, without Bail or Mainprize, and until such Forfeiture shall be paid; and in case of a further Conviction, in Manner before prescribed by this Act, for or upon a second or other subsequent Offence of the same Kind, the Person or Persons so again offending shall, upon every second or other subsequent Conviction, severally forfeit for every Person so by him, her or them respectively contracted with, enticed, persuaded, solicited or seduced, the Sum of one thousand Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain; and shall also suffer Imprisonment in the Common Gaol of the County, Riding, Division, Shire or Stewartry, wherein such Offender or Offenders shall be respectively convicted, for the Space of two Years, without Bail or Mainprize, and until such Forfeiture shall be paid; any thing in the said in part recited Act of the fifth Year of his said late Majesty's Reign to the contrary notwithstanding.

II. Provided nevertheless, That no Person shall be prosecuted for any of the Offences aforesaid, unless such Prosecution shall be commenced within the Space of twelve Calendar Months next after such Offence shall be committed.

Prosecution to be commenced within 12 Months.

'III. And whereas the Exportation of the several Tools or Utensils made use of in preparing, working up and finishing the Woollen and Silk Manufactures, or any or either of them, will enable Foreigners to work up such Manufactures, and thereby greatly diminish the Exportation of the same from this Kingdom;' Therefore, for preserving as much as possible to his Majesty's British Subjects, the Benefits arising from those great and valuable Branches of Trade and Commerce; Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty, if any Person or Persons in Great Britain or Ireland shall, upon any Pretence whatsoever, load or put on Board,

Captains of Vessels permitting such Utensils to be put on Board, to forfeit 100 l.

Captains of his Majesty's Ships to forfeit 100 l. and to be cashiered.

VI. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Customer, Comptroller, Surveyor, Searcher, Waiter or other Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or any Officer of the Revenue in Ireland, shall take, or knowingly or willingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or shall sign any Cocket, Warrant or Sufferance for the shipping or exporting of any of the said Tools or Utensils by this Act prohibited to be exported, or shall knowingly or willingly permit or suffer the same to be done, directly or indirectly, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act; every such Customer, Comptroller, Surveyor, Searcher, Waiter or other Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or Officer of the Revenue in Ireland so offending, shall forfeit the Sum of one hundred Pounds of lawful Money of Great Britain, to be sued for and recovered as aforesaid; and shall also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office or Employment under his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors.

CAP. XVIII.

An Act for enlightening the open Places, Streets, Lanes, Passages and Courts; and for the better regulating the Nightly Watch within the Parish of Saint John Southwark in the County of Surry.

'WHEREAS the Parish of Saint John in the Borough of Southwark in the County of Surry, is situate between London Bridge and his Majesty's Dock Yard and Victualling Office at Deptford, and also the East India Warehouse at Rotherhithe: And whereas by virtue of an Act made and passed in the last Session of Parliament, (intituled, An Act for opening and making a new Road from the East End of Newstreet in the Parish of Saint John Southwark, to and through the several Places therein mentioned; and for keeping the said Road in Repair for the future) a new Road is now opened through the Parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen Bermondsey, Saint Mary Rotherhithe, and Saint Nicholas and Saint Paul Deptford, for the better Convenience of his Majesty's Subjects in passing and repassing to and from London Bridge, and the Places beforementioned: And whereas the Access to such new Road, through the said Parish of Saint John, is now very dangerous in the Night-time, for want of proper Lights, and a well regulated Watch: And whereas a proper Provision for that Purpose would not only be a great Security to the Persons and Properties of all his Majesty's Subjects, passing and repassing to and from Deptford Dock and the other Places aforesaid, in the Night-time; but also would be a great Safeguard against Fires that might destroy great Quantities of Naval Stores always reposited in Warehouses on the Banks of the River Thames in those Parts; and would be of the utmost Use in case of Accidents by Fire amongst the Shipping in the River Thames; in both

' which

'which Cases great Numbers of the most experienced Artificers and Tradesmen, residing in those Parts, 'could be more capable of affording their Assistance when required, upon Emergencies in the Night-time; 'but forasmuch as a proper Provision cannot be made for setting up proper Lights, and establishing a well 'regulated Watch, for the good Purposes aforesaid, by the Laws now in Being;' May it please your Majesty, at the humble Request of several Merchants and Traders of the City of London, and Masters and Owners of Ships, and also of the Minister, Churchwardens, and other principal Inhabitants of the said Parish of Saint John Southwark, that it may be enacted, &c.

CAP. XIX.

An Act for making more effectual several Acts of Parliament passed for cleansing and making navigable the Channel from the Hithe at Colchester to Wivenhoe in the County of Essex; and for repairing and cleansing the Streets and Lanes of the Town of Colchester. PR.

9&10W.3.c.19. 'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King WILLIAM the Third, intituled, An Act for cleansing and making navigable the Chan- 'nel from the Hithe at Colchester to Wivenhoe, several Duties were granted and made payable, for Goods, 'Wares and Merchandizes, that should be brought in and to the said Channel, and should be landed at, 'or shipped from Wivenhoe to the New Hithe in Colchester aforesaid, or between either of the said Places, 'for the Term of twenty-one Years, for the Uses and Purposes in the said Act mentioned; and several 'Powers were thereby given unto and vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, Assistants, and Common Council of 'the Town and Borough of Colchester only, for appointing Collectors and General Receivers of the said 'Duties, and for recovering and getting in the same, in such Manner as in the said Act is particularly men- 'tioned; which said Act, and all the Powers and Authorities thereby given, and one Moiety or Half-part 'of the Duties thereby granted and made payable (except upon Corn and Grain) were, by another Act 'passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, continued in Force un- 'til the First Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty; and further Power was thereby given to 'the said Mayor and Commonalty of Colchester only, for recovering the same Duties: And whereas by ano- 13 Geo.2.c.30. 'ther Act passed in the thirteenth Year of the Reign of his present Majesty, intituled, An Act for further 'enlarging the Term granted by an Act passed the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King WILLIAM the 'Third, For cleansing and making navigable the Channel from the Hithe at Colchester to Wivenhoe; and for 'making the said Act, and another Act of the fifth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the 'First, For enlarging the Term granted by the said Act of the ninth and tenth Years of the Reign of King 'WILLIAM the Third, more effectual; it is enacted, That the said two former Acts, and all and every 'the Powers and Authorities thereby respectively given, together with such additional Powers as are in 'the said Act of the thirteenth Year of his present Majesty mentioned, should be continued, and be in 'Force from the first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty, for ever; and that the Duty on 'Sea Coal should, from and after the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty, be three 'Pence a Chaldron, and no more; which Duty was, by the said Act of the thirteenth of his present Ma- 'jesty, continued and made payable, from the said first Day of May one thousand seven hundred and forty, 'for and during the Term of forty Years; and by the said Act it was declared, That no other Duty (ex- 'cept the Arrears due under the said former Acts, or either of them) should be raised upon any other Goods, 'Wares, Merchandizes or Things whatsoever; which said Duty of three Pence for every Chaldron of Sea 'Coals, granted as aforesaid, and the Duties which were or should be in Arrear under the said former Acts, 'should and might be raised, levied and recovered, in such Manner as prescribed by the said former Acts; 'and the said Mayor and Commonalty of Colchester only were by the last-mentioned Act vested with further 'Power for suing for, and recovering the said Duty thereby granted, and the Arrears under the said former 'Acts: And whereas a very large Lock, which was several Years since erected in the said Channel, and has 'been found to be of very great Use and Service to the Navigation, is now in a decaying Condition, and 'much out of Repair; and the said Channel, in some Parts thereof, is become much choaked up, so that 'the Navigation thereof is greatly obstructed; which has been occasioned principally by there being great 'Arrears of the Duties granted by the said recited Acts for many Years due, and still unpaid; and also a 'large Sum of Money remaining in the Hands of the Representatives of the late Receiver General of the 'said Duties, which ought to have been recovered, and applied for amending and repairing the said 'Lock, and cleansing and supporting the Navigation of the said Channel: But, as the Power and Autho- 'rity of the Mayor and Commonalty of Colchester hath ceased for many Years last past (in whose Names 'only the said Duties were to be recovered, and legal Discharges given for the same, by and under the Au- 'thorities of the said several Acts) the same Duties, and the Arrears thereof, cannot now be recovered and collected, for want of sufficient Power to give legal Discharges for the same; and there being no other Fund for raising Money to amend and keep in Repair the said Lock, and cleanse the said Channel, and preserve the Navigation thereof, the same cannot now be done, without some further Provision be made for that Purpose by the Aid and Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please your Majesty, that it may be enacted, &c.

" The several Parcels of Land, Locks and Channels, and the several Powers, &c. which were granted to " the Corporation of Colchester, &c. are vested in the Justices of the East Division of the County of Essex, " and the Commissioners named herein, for the Term of 30 Years. Additional Duty of 3 d. a Chaldron on " Coals to be paid for 30 Years. Commissioners may borrow Money, and assign over the Duties as a Security. " Six Days Notice to be given of the Time of Meeting for borrowing Money. Commissioners may " place out in the Funds, any Money that shall be in the Receiver General's Hands, &c. not immediately " necessary, &c. and may appoint and remove Collectors and other Officers. The Prescriptive Rights of " the Borough of Colchester reserved. Landlords, &c. to pave the Streets before their Houses, Surveyors " of the Highways to view the Streets, and see that the same are paved, and to make Returns of such Land- " lords, whose Pavements shall be out of Repair; and to give Notice for repairing thereof, and may cause " the same to be amended, after 20 Days Neglect. If the Tenant shall pay, he may deduct the same out " of the Rent. Justices may make Presentments of Default in the Pavement of the Streets. Persons ag- " grieved may appeal.
